

Platt Prayers

July 2017

- 1 July Pray for the Manchester International Outreach (MIO) team to establish good relationships so they can serve together and boldly take the gospel to many students.
- 2 July Today's James Spence ordination. Praise God for bringing the Spence's to our church family and ask that God would use them to spur us all on to know and love Jesus better.
- 3 July Give thanks to God for Alexis Kelso and pray for her parents to be patient and wise as they teach and model the gospel to her.
- 4 July Tonight is CPG. Pray that we would have an encouraging time as we praise, thank and petition God together.
- 5 July Give thanks to God for the many faithful ministers in the North West who are devoted to their flocks and diligently teach His word in and out of season.
- 6 July Pray for those leading the women's bible study; that they would be applying the truths from Gods word to themselves before teaching it to others.
- 7 July Margaret Hill is in Nairobi training students. Pray for energy and joy as she remembers the fruit of her labour will be that people will have Gods word available in their language.
- 8 July MIO is halfway through. Pray that the regular attenders to events would eagerly enquire about Christianity and understand Jesus for themselves.
- 9 July Praise God for the children and youth leaders who humbly serve the families every week by teaching the children.
- 10 July Ask God to give Paul and Grace Robinson clarity, unity and peace as they finalise plans.
- 11 July Pray that all those at Oasis would be strengthened and encouraged in the gospel. Pray that they would have gospel opportunities with family and friends.
- 12 July Give thanks for the many bible truths the young people have learned over this year. Pray they would each realise their need of a saviour and repent and believe the good news.
- 13 July Tonight ministry to business has a vision evening. Pray they would have much to thank God for and that they would prayerfully plan for the year ahead.
- 14 July Pray that new enquirers to Christianity would come to the Alexandria Library and discover wonderful truths as they read the bible for the first time.
- 15 July Thank God for the steady growth in the TCC congregations. Pray that new converts would be established in the faith and produce spiritual fruit as they abide in Jesus' words.
- 16 July Today Gavin Calver is preaching at the 1030 service. Pray it would be an international seeker friendly service and that many visitors would stay for the picnic brunch.

- 17 July Pray for the Glod staff, especially Pete Gaskel, Helen Winn and Ed Gray as they begin the first week of camp. Pray they would make wise decisions and remain calm trusting God.
- 18 July Pray that the Wheatley's would have an encouraging time back in the UK as they celebrate Peter's university graduation and get medical attention for Sarah's epilepsy.
- 19 July Pray that our church ministers would be those who delight in God, enjoying listening and speaking to him. Pray they would be refreshed in their relationship with him this summer.
- 20 July Pray for the personal evangelism of the church family; that we would have compassion and speak of Jesus as we remember that those around us are in darkness and facing judgement.
- 21 July Camp Casterton for 11-14s begins tomorrow. Pray for courage for the young people who may be feeling very nervous and ask that they would have a wonderful week of fun and bible teaching.
- 22 July Camp Vibe for 14-18s begins today. Pray for the leaders to have stamina and joy as they tell the young people about Jesus this week.
- 23 July Pray for the Robinson family as they return to Cambodia. Pray for a smooth transition for the children and opportunities to encourage the believers in Phnom Penh.
- 24 July Give thanks for Liz Grady and her love and compassion for God's people. Pray that she would draw strength from the Lord to sustain her service to others.
- 25 July Pray that the students would be honouring their parents over the summer and that they would use their time wisely.
- 26 July Pray for the young people on various camps; that they would have their eyes opened to understand spiritual truths.
- 27 July Pray for holiday at home; that the organisers would be patient and continue to think more highly of others than themselves as they do the last minute preparation.
- 28 July Give thanks for the leaders serving on various camps and ask that they would stay prayerfully dependent on God to work within the lives of the young people.
- 29 July Pray for Mark and Alex Glew to patiently love their church family and to faithfully teach the gospel trusting that it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes.
- 30 July Give thanks for Jez Robinson and his practical service to the church family.
- 31 July Holiday at home begins today. Pray that many would come from the local community and while having fun would also hear the good news of Jesus.
